

Please protect the diversity of programming and interests by NOT deregulating further ownership concentration of media companies. Americans have a responsibility to remain informed on issues. That is a daunting task, but having the media controlled in a concentrated fashion puts profitability and efficiency above information access, compromising a key American right and responsibility.